Trip Donation to NPH:

- Tour NPH Casa San Andres Home and discover first-hand the effects that love and acceptance have on children who once struggled to survive. We will share four meals together, play and learn about the hands-on trades they learn at the home baking, sewing, carpentry and welding.
- Together our goal is to raise $4,000 in donations from our tour group, to express our financial support to strengthen NPH Guatemala. Each trip participant is asked to personally donate $400 which is fully tax-deductible or raise $400 from friends and family. You will experience firsthand how your support provides children with quality education, healthcare and food.

Payment Schedule:

- $400 deposit due September 24, 2018.
- Remaining balance and traveler forms due October 1, 2018.

About NPH Guatemala

Opened in 1996, NPH Guatemala is home to approximately 100 children. The home, Casa San Andres, is located 90 minutes west of Guatemala City, the nation's capital. It is situated 5,800 feet above sea level in Guatemala's beautiful central highlands, very close to the famous colonial capital of Antigua Guatemala. Casa San Andres has approximately 25 acres of land with a Montessori preschool/ kindergarten, primary and middle schools, vocational workshops, clinic, athletic fields, a farm and greenhouses.
